SCOTTISH LETTER

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

EDINBURGH, Nov. 13.

MR. GEORGE AND THE DEER FOREST.

Mr. Lloyd's George's speech at Swindon on the Highland deer forests has brought out a crop of replies, some of them of a practical nature. Three great Highland landlords have offered to sell to the Government wide tracts of the kind described, and thrown down a challenge to the Government to make any better use of the mountains and uplands. The Duke of Sutherland, as was mentioned in last week's Scottish letter, was the first to come forward with an offer of 300,000 acres of deer forest at a price of £2 per acre. He has now bettered this by proposing to sell 210,000 acres, the greater part of which is the parish of Eddrachilles, Durness, Tongue, and Lairg, at £1, 2s. 6d. per acre, plus the value of the buildings. Of this stretch of country 40,000 acres are not under deer, but the Duke holds the opinion that deer is not suitable for cultivation. He reserves the fishing rights, though the Government may acquire them at a price fixed by arbitration. He does more, however, than propose his first offer: in addition he offers the Chancelor Leven, situated in the parish of Eddrachilles, stretching for 15 miles west from the Cairnness boundary, at £1, 2s. 6d. per acre. Here again, buildings and fishing must be part of a separate bargain. The Duke has reserved the fishing rights, though the Government may acquire them at a price fixed by arbitration. He does more, however, than propose his first offer: in addition he offers the Chancelor Leven, situated in the parish of Eddrachilles, stretching for 15 miles west from the Cairnness boundary, at £1, 2s. 6d. per acre. Here again, buildings and fishing must be part of a separate bargain. The Duke has reserved the fishing rights, though the Government may acquire them at a price fixed by arbitration.
